FLEET FOOTED DOGS.

The Speed of Setters, Pointers, Foxhounds and Greyhounds.

Comparatively few people realize of what remarkable speed dogs are capable. Some remarkable statistics in regard to this have been gathered by a French scientist. After pointing out the marvelous endurance shown by little fox terriers who follow their masters patiently for hours while the latter are riding on bicycles or in carriages he says that certain wild animals that are akin to dogs. Thus, the wolf can run between fifty and sixty miles in one night, and an arctic fox can do quite as well, if not better. Nansen met one of these foxes on the ice at a point more than seventy miles northwest of the Sannikow territory, which is 480 miles from the Asiatic coast.

Eskimo and Siberian dogs can travel forty-five miles on the ice in five hours, and there is one case on record in which a team of Eskimo dogs traveled six and a half miles in twenty-eight minutes. According to the scientist, the speed of the shepherd dogs and those used in hunting ranges from ten to fifteen yards a second. English setters and pointers hunt at the rate of eighteen to nineteen miles an hour, and they can maintain this speed for at least two hours. Foxhounds are extraordinarily swift, as is proved by the fact that a dog of this breed once beat a thoroughbred horse, covering four miles in six and a half minutes, which was at the rate of nearly eighteen yards a second. Greyhounds are the swiftest of all four footed creatures, and their speed may be regarded as equal to that of carrier pigeons.—Our Animal Friends.

Discovery of the Gulf Stream.

Ponce de Leon, while on his famous search for the fountain of youth, made the discovery of the gulf stream. The whalers of New England were the first to gain a fairly accurate knowledge of the limits of the current between America and Europe by following the haunts of the whales, which were found north of one line and south of another, but never between the two. This, they reasoned, was the gulf stream current.

Benjamin Franklin received this information from the whalers and published it on a chart for the benefit of the mail packets plying between England and the colonies. The chart was first issued about 1770, but was not accepted by the English captains. Before it came to be generally known and used the trouble between England and the colonies began, and Franklin, knowing the advantage the knowledge would be to the British naval officers, suppressed it all he could until hostilities ceased.

Celery For Rheumatism.

Physicians say that celery is a cure for rheumatism. Indeed, it is asserted that the disease is impossible if the vegetable be cooked and freely eaten. The celery should be cut into pieces and boiled in water until soft and the water drunk by the patient. Put new milk, with a little flour and nutmeg, into a saucepan and boil it.

The sword stick, or "gupiti," is of East Indian origin. There is one form of it which is peculiar to chiefs and men of rank. The hilt of the sword, forming the handle of the stick, is crutch shaped, and the owner, when lying on his divan, would have his arm resting upon this, so as never to be taken quite unarmed. It was called in Persian "takiah-zafar," or "cushion of victory." Another form of concealed sword was made so flexible as to be worn around the waist like a girdle.—Chambers' Journal.

SOME TRICK RIDERS.

Not Circus People, but Women Shopkeepers of New York.

"Unless you are a cabman you cannot appreciate what a lot of cheap people there are in New York," said the man with the shiny hat. "Women are the worst offenders—the women who try to put on airs out of nothing. It is on their account that so many of us cabmen have our headquarters down around Twenty-third street. It is a fact that two-thirds of the women who patronize cabmen do their riding between Twenty-third street. Up town they walk or fall back on the cars. The reason is—they can make a bigger showing with us down here in the shopping district. Why, I've known women to ride ten miles on a street car and then, when they got a block of two away from the shops, they'd take a cab for the rest of the distance. It looks big, and to hear them tell it it sounds a good deal bigger.

"I had nothing on hand today," says madam, "so I just thought I'd call a cab and come down and buy a few things."

"Holy smoke! If she'd only tell where she was when she called me, the friends she meets would fall over in a fit—that is, they would unless they are up to the same tricks, which undoubtedly many of them are.

"It is the same way when they come down town to meet friends and dine at hotels or big restaurants. The first and longest stage of the journey is made in a car, and then, when half a block from their destination, they climb into a cab and ride the rest of the way as big as Pompey, just to make a show before the hotel folk. Of course there is nothing criminal about the scheme. It is perfectly legitimate, and we cabmen have no legal right to kick, but it does rile a fellow so sometimes to be limited to such short runs that he can't help but say things."—New York Press.

Mother of Pearl.

The most beautiful mother of pearl, unless that of the obalone be excepted, is obtained from the nautilus, which is a cephalon and related to the cuttlefish. Occupying only the mouth of its dwelling, the latter is composed of a series of empty chambers, each of which the animal has successively lived in and vacated as it grew bigger, building up behind it at each move a wall of purest pearl.

These vacant rooms of pearl are all connected by a pneumatic tube, which enables the creature to so control the air supply to its house as to make the domicile lighter or heavier at will, in order to ascend or descend in the water. The shell is too thin to bear grinding, and so muriatic acid is used to remove the outer coat and disclose the exquisite nacre beneath.

How the Continents Attract Seas.

The effect of gravitation in heaping up the sea waters upon the shores of continents is one of the most interesting as well as the most curious and least considered facts in connection with old ocean's history. Thus the continents are all situated at tops of great hills or mountains of water, and to cross the Atlantic or any other ocean the ship has to first go down the sloping sheet, cross the valley and then climb the mountain of water on the other side before it safely reaches a harbor.

In this connection the interesting calculation has been made that in midocean on the Atlantic the depression is about three-fourths of a mile below the level of the water at coast line, while a ship in traveling from San Francisco to Yokohama, Japan, must cross a valley at least a mile in depth.

English Rulers and the Language.

Unlike most other countries, England has repeatedly been governed by foreigners, who thought so little of their people that they did not even take the trouble to learn the language of their subjects. Most of the Danish kings knew no English, and if William the Conqueror, William Rufus and others knew the language they kept the fact to themselves.

The early French kings, in fact, regarded England as a conquest and France as their home. Richard I., for instance, spent but a few months of the ten years of his reign on English soil. In modern times George I. neither knew nor cared to learn English, and George II. spoke it very imperfectly.

Beating the Kitchen.

Mamma was serving the jam pudding. "Johnny, will you take a little pudding?"

Johnny—Yes. Will you give me the ends, please?

Mamma—But why do you wish to have the ends, Johnny?

Johnny—Why, when I was in the kitchen I heard Mary say to cook, "Put a good lot of jam in the ends, cook, because, you know, the ends are always left for us."—London Answers.

WINNING AN UMBRELLA.

A Mistake That Brought a Surprise to Both Men Involved.

A Grand avenue merchant entered his store the other day with an umbrella in his hand and, sitting down on the nearest stool, burst into a roar of laughter. In response to queries as to the character of the joke the merchant said after a few minutes of hilarity:

"Well, you know, when I started out in the rain I had no umbrella. I worried along, debating whether I shouldn't invest, but was deterred by the thought that I already have three umbrellas kicking around somewhere. When I got over on East Water street, I spied a man I presumed to be Dick Wilson, an old friend of mine. The man I thought to be Dick was carrying a fine silk umbrella. It's mine now," he added fondly as he gazed on the work of art he held in his hand.

"As soon as I saw the man I presumed to be Dick I was so overjoyed that I rushed on him from the rear and, slapping him hard on the back, exclaimed, 'Look here, old man, give me that umbrella!'

"The man turned, and, to my amazement, I discovered that he was not Dick, but some one I had never seen before. I was covered with confusion and was about to apologize when I observed that he was even more confused than I. He hastily closed the umbrella and pressed it into my hand with the remark:

"I beg your pardon. I didn't know it was yours," and vanished around the corner, leaving me standing with open mouthed astonishment.

After the outburst of merriment from the assembled clerks had subsided the merchant said:

"Well, I've got a fine, new umbrella anyway, and they say the second thief is the best owner."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Letters That Sell Well.

Letters of today that bring favorable rates in a big market are the letters of business. You can either rent or sell them. This is in connection with the industry known as the "mail order business." Those engaged in the scheme must have "names." They must know to whom to send the carefully worded circulars which are to be productive of a golden harvest.

The modus operandi in the past was to put an advertisement in a local paper that people in the big cities seldom see, but which have a wide circulation in the mail district.

The mail order man now procures a big list of names of people who have answered previous advertisements and to those on this list he addresses circulars. This to him is a great saving. It narrows down to a special field. In place of declaiming to an uninterested number of people he has the advantage of getting in touch with a carefully selected audience which is anxious to pay attention.—New York News.

It's So Easy

To take cold. It's so common to neglect the cold. That is one reason why there are so many people with "deep-seated," stubborn coughs, and so many more with "lung trouble."

The short, quick way to cure a cough is to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. The quicker this remedy is used the quicker the cure. But even when neglect has let disease fasten on the lungs, "Golden Medical Discovery" may be relied on to cure in ninety-eight cases out of every hundred.

The only motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make the little extra profit paid on the sale of less meritorious medicines. He gains. You lose. Therefore accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery."

"I am feeling quite well," writes Miss Dorcas A. Lewis, of No. 129 1/2 12th St., Washington, D. C. "My cough is very much better, and I owe it all to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I cannot say too much in praise of the medicine. I had been quite a sufferer for a long time, and after reading Doctor Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser I thought I would try his 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I commenced taking it in May, 1900. Had not been sleeping well for a long time. Took one teaspoonful of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and slept nearly all night without coughing, so I continued taking it. I am in great sympathy with everybody who suffers with a cough. I had been a sufferer for more than ten years. I tried lots of different medicines and different doctors, but did not feel much better. I coughed until I commenced spitting blood, but now I feel much stronger and am entirely well. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the best medicine I have ever taken. My home is in Williamsburg, Virginia."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are a ladies' laxative. No other medicine equals them for gentleness and thoroughness.

SAN FRANCISCO, MAY 31, 1902.

B. R. GRANICE - EDITOR

THE Saturday San Francisco Chronicle every week gives an account of the agricultural activities in the different sections of the State. A special department is devoted to it and undoubtedly advertises our resources extensively.

THE Chronicle says the functions of Women's Improvement Clubs is to make cities so healthful and attractive that people will want to live in them. One half of people's lives are devoted to living. The other half to making a living. It is for the men to put their city in such a condition that people can make a living. The ladies work is to give settlers a good place in which to live.

THE Southern Pacific's Overland Limited trains are now lighted with electricity. Messrs. E. O. McCormick, Passenger Traffic Manager, and T. H. Goodman, General Passenger Agent, have issued a neat little booklet announcing this latest improvement and other up-to-date features of the Overland Limited, which combines speed with luxury, and makes the run between San Francisco and New York in exactly four days.

THE progressive citizens of Sebastopol, led by the Times, won a signal victory over the back sliders of that town and their mouthpiece, the Standard, on Tuesday last, when the proposition to incorporate was carried nearly two to one. We were pained to note that the Standard allowed its columns to be used to defeat Sebastopol's incorporation and future progress. One of its principal arguments against incorporation was that some money would have to be spent for printing. No newspaper man, unless he be a fool, would go against his own interests in a matter of this kind. Sebastopol's printing bills will amount to very little after the first year of incorporation and the money so spent with its newspapers will be re-spent, every cent of it, among its taxpayers. We take it that the lawyer-editor of the Standard has mistaken his avocation in his attempt to run a newspaper.

REPUBLICAN

STATE CONVENTION.

To Be Held in Sacramento
August 25th.

The Republican State Central Committee met in San Francisco last Saturday and decided that the State Convention of the party be held at Sacramento on Monday, August 25th. The primary elections to select delegates will be held under the State law August 12th.

The call provides for the election of delegates on the basis of one delegate for every 200 votes or majority fraction of 200 cast for Presidential electors in 1900. This will give the convention 829 members. Sonoma county is entitled to 22 delegates under the apportionment—12 in the Sixteenth and 10 in the Seventeenth Assembly district.

The delegates will be elected by a direct vote of the Republican electors in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Oakland, Sacramento, San Jose, San Diego, Stockton, Alameda, Pasadena, Fresno, Berkeley and Vallejo. In all the other counties and districts they are to be elected in the old way—by county conventions which will be called by the County Central Committees.

The test to be required of those who desire to participate in the primaries is as follows: "A bona fide present intention of supporting the nominees of the Republican party at the next ensuing election."

The delegates to the State Convention will also be delegates to the Congressional District Convention, the Board of Equalization Convention, and the Railroad Commissioners Convention, which conventions will also be held in Sacramento at the convening of the State Convention.

Rainbow Program.

The thirteenth anniversary of the Epworth League was celebrated at the Methodist Church last Sunday evening. A rainbow program was the feature of the occasion—the colors of the rainbow representing some phase of the League work.

A bright rainbow, constructed out of prismatic colors, stood in front of the pulpit and was illuminated by electric lights. The effect was beautiful.

Out of this grew all the themes. The junior members of the League sang and recited, after which the following ladies read some very excellent papers: Mrs. W. T. Rutledge, Mrs. Rea, Mrs. Case and Miss Culberson.

Blood.

We live by our blood, and on it. We thrive or starve, as our blood is rich or poor.

There is nothing else to live on or by.

When strength is full and spirits high, we are being refreshed, bone muscle and brain, in body and mind, with continual flow of rich blood.

This is health.

When weak, in low spirits, no cheer, no spring, when rest is not rest and sleep is not sleep, we are starved; our blood is poor; there is little nutriment in it.

Back of the blood, is food, to keep the blood rich. When it fails, take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil. It sets the whole body going again—man woman and child.

If you have not tried it, send for free sample, its agreeable taste will surprise you.

SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, 409-413 Pearl Street, New York.

Weekly Crop Bulletin.

United States Department of Agriculture. Climate and Crop Bulletin of the Weather Bureau, California Section, Coast and Bay Division, for the week ending Monday, May 26, 1902.

The weather during the week has been cool and partly cloudy or foggy, retarding somewhat the growth of grain and ripening of deciduous fruits. The high winds of last week caused but little damage to fruit, but dried the soil and injured pasturage. Light showers would be very beneficial. Grain is in very good condition except in the southern counties, where it is reported much of the wheat and barley will be cut for hay. Hay-making is progressing in nearly all sections, and good crops are the rule in the central and northern districts; all hay is excellent in quality. Prune trees in the vicinity of Santa Rosa are being considerably damaged by canker worm; the prune crop will probably be light in most sections. Apricots are of large size, and will yield a good crop. Cherries are ripening rapidly; the yield will be less than average in many places. A good crop of B. rilet pears is expected. Vineyards and citrus fruits are doing well.

'FACTORY GIRLS.'

The Graceful and Handsome Women who Work at the Loom.

Any one who has lived in a factory town and has seen the tide of human life which floods the streets when the mills stop for the day, will have been struck by the number of graceful and handsome young girls among the throng. Light hearted, sun-glad, it is hard to realize that they have just left a day's fatiguing work. But another sight attracts the onlooker. He sees groups of other women, thin of form, dull of eye, languid of movement, and he realizes that these were but a few years ago as bright and happy as their younger fellow-workers. It is natural to ask the cause of such a physical change, which is not to be explained by the stress and strain of daily labor, because there are not a few who, in spite of years of steady work, retain the girlish attractiveness of face and figure. Perhaps the most important cause of this change is to be found in the prevalence of ailments peculiarly feminine, which drain the vitality and sap the strength. If at times these women had been working under physical conditions, which, if a man suffered them would be enough to send him to bed. With throbbing head and aching back the wage earner plods on, feeling that she cannot afford either to rest or pay a physician's fees, and every day sees her grow more weary and more weak.

THERE'S NO NEED TO STOP WORK or pay expensive fees in order to be cured of womanly diseases. Hundreds of thousands of weak and sick women have been made well and strong by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, dries the drains which weaken women, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"A few years ago I suffered severely with female weakness and, in fact, dreadful pains," writes Mrs. V. Brown, of Creswell, Harford Co., Maryland. "I went to my doctor, and he gave me medicine which did me good for a while, but I would get worse again. I had a sick headache nearly all the time; I was so weak around my waist could hardly bear anything to touch me. My feet would keep cold and I could hardly do my work. I would work a while, and then lie down a while; the most complete run down. Suffered from disagreeable drain and also severe pains at times. After using five bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription" if she is suffering from womanly diseases. The longer its effect on the general health, and the slower the cure. There is no object in experimenting with other medicines when the experience of thousands of women proves that "Favorite Prescription" is the surest and safest of put-up medicines for the cure of disease peculiarly womanly.

THE PRIVILEGE OF SICK WOMEN. Sick and ailing women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is sacredly secret, and the written confidences of women are guarded by the same strict professional privacy observed by Dr. Pierce and his staff in personal consultations with women at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

It is hardly possible to overestimate the value of this free consultation by letter with Dr. Pierce. In numerous cases such as Mrs. Spooner's, when local medical advice and treatment had failed to give relief, a letter to Dr. Pierce has been the means of restoring perfect health.

Accept no substitute for "Favorite Prescription." The substitute medicine is only the shadow instead of the substance and is pressed on the customer because it pays the dealer a little more profit than is paid by a high-class standard preparation like "Favorite Prescription."

FREE TO WOMEN. Dr. Pierce's great medical work, the Common Sense Medical Adviser, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. This work contains more than a thousand large pages of valuable medical information. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the cloth-bound volume, or only 21 stamps for the book in paper covers. Address Dr. R. ### WANTS A DIVORCE.

Henry Weyl Jr. Commences Suit in the Superior Court of this County.

Henry Weyl Jr. of this place commenced an action in the Superior Court of this county Monday to be divorced from his wife, Mrs. Mabel Agnew Weyl. The parties were married in this place eight or ten years ago but have been separated for a long time. Barham & Barham are the attorneys for plaintiff.

Memorial Services.

There were Memorial services here yesterday. The churches and public school children joined together to honor the dead. After appropriate exercises the graves of the departed soldiers were heaped with the season's most beautiful flowers.

A large crowd from this place took in the picnic at Glen Ellen today.

Favorite Prescription, three of his "Golden Medical Discoveries" and one of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, and following the advice you gave regarding the Lo-Tabs, I can truly say that I am cured. The doctor said it was uterine disease I had.

The sick woman who begins the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription begins the cure with the first dose she takes. Women who have suffered for long years and found no help from doctors or other medicines have found a perfect and lasting cure in the use of "Favorite Prescription."

IT ALWAYS HELPS and almost always cures. This statement is based upon the fact that of the hundreds of thousands of women who have used "Favorite Prescription" ninety-eight per cent. have been perfectly and permanently cured. Only two women in each hundred have failed of a complete cure, and even in these cases there has been marked relief and improvement; the headache is less frequent, the backache less severe, and household duties long laid aside are undertaken anew with comfort and satisfaction.

"I can truthfully say that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a wonderful medicine and deserves the praise given it," writes Mrs. Emma Spooner, of Lakeview, California, Co., Mich., Box 288. "I was sick four months and the medicine prescribed by the doctors did me no good. Finally I wrote to Dr. R. V. Pierce for his advice. He answered in a very kind letter, instructing me what to do. I followed his advice, and to-day am a well woman, thanks to Dr. Pierce."

No woman should delay the use of "Favorite Prescription" if she is suffering from womanly diseases. The longer its effect on the general health, and the slower the cure. There is no object in experimenting with other medicines when the experience of thousands of women proves that "Favorite Prescription" is the surest and safest of put-up medicines for the cure of disease peculiarly womanly.

Sick and ailing women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is sacredly secret, and the written confidences of women are guarded by the same strict professional privacy observed by Dr. Pierce and his staff in personal consultations with women at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

TUNEFUL HAGAKUKU.

The Japanese Oparette Well Rendered.

"Hagakuko," a pretty adaptation from the comic opera "The Geisha," was given in Union Hall for the benefit of the Congregational Church on Wednesday and Thursday evenings. The tuneful music of "The Geisha" was used with different dialogue and the plot gave place to a singing school recital in which was introduced the different songs of the Japanese opera.

The piece was put on under the management of Mrs. Appleton and Miss Claire Hope, who rewrote the dialogue, introducing the singing school idea and called her adaptation "Hagakuko."

The stage setting was excellent for an amateur performance, lanterns and Japanese umbrellas, Oriental draperies, chrysanthemums and lilies combining to form a very artistic background for the group of pretty Japanese school girls and their teacher.

The costumes were the flowery kimonos of Japan in every conceivable color with fans and chrysanthemums for further adornment.

The pretty maidens sang, frolicked, sipped tea and went through some very cleverly executed drills with fans and lanterns. "Polly Winked His Eye," "The Jewel of Asia," "Roly Poly San," "The Little Jap Jappy Jap Jappy," "Jack's the Boy" and "The Gold Fish Story" were heartily applauded.

The receipts for both nights were good and Mrs. Appleton is to be congratulated on the artistic success of "Hagakuko."

Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. Lazinsky, Mr. and Mrs. Henry McHugh and child and Mr. Morris Schwartz.

The opening ball of the Bellevue Hotel was a great success and a more enjoyable evening was never spent in this place by visitors.

Dancing was indulged in until the wee sma' hours. Mr. Tom Mullen acted as floor manager, and the success of the ball was due in a great measure to his efforts. Mrs. Johnston favored those present with several vocal solos and was warmly applauded.

YOU GUESS.

—El Verano, May 30, 1902.

SCARCITY OF LABOR.

Orchard Hands Command as High as $1.50 per Day.

There is a scarcity of labor in Sonoma Valley this season, and many of our orchardists who are short-handed are offering as high as $1.50 per day for men to thin out the peach crop and pick cherries. Orchard hands even at that price cannot be obtained and it is feared that serious loss will follow this scarcity of labor.

There can be no excuse for idleness at this time, as the demand for labor not only here but pretty much all over the State is steadily on the increase.

The unemployed of less favored sections can find remunerative employment in this valley from now on until its diversified crops are harvested.

School Elections.

There will be an election for School Trustees in every district in this valley next Friday. High School Trustees will also be elected at the same time in the Glen Ellen, Enterprise, Dunbar and Flowery districts. In the latter district a High School Trustee will be elected to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Ludwig Steiger.

The Daily Call and Index-Tribune $7 per year.

THE WATERLOO BALL.

Some of Those There Really Danced the Dance of Death.

The Duke and Duchess of Richmond were living in a fine hotel on the Rue de la Blanchisserie, which stood on its own grounds and had a fruit and flower garden extending to the city ramparts. Their graces moved in all the society of Brussels and entertained a great deal. The duchess, who had issued 220 invitations for the ball, proposed to recall them when she heard that Napoleon's army was advancing. But the Duke of Wellington, to prevent alarm, requested that the ball might take place.

Nevertheless many English families were frightened away from Brussels, and post horses were kept harnessed in the Duke of Richmond's stable in case bad news from the scene of the conflict should make it advisable for his children to be sent to Antwerp. The majority of the people of Brussels were violent Bonapartists and were prepared to entertain Napoleon in great style should he force the British army to retreat and enter their city in triumph.

So it was that the Duke of Wellington and many of his officers went to the ball after the business of the day had been attended to. While the merry couples were flying around a dispatch from the front was handed to Wellington. He asked the Duke of Richmond for a private room where he might consult with some of his generals who were present. The duchess' dressing room was the only convenient room safe from intrusion.

Candles were hastily lighted on the dressing table, at which Wellington sat with a map before him, and, having explained certain points to his staff, they all rejoined the company. They left the house before 10 o'clock and succeeded in doing so without attracting any attention. Very few, if any, of the dancers guessed how near at hand was the crisis which was to decide the fate of Europe, and it never entered the heads of the young girls that some of their partners were dancing the "dance of death."

A Trick of Cross Examination.

In an action for payment of a tailor's bill a witness in a London court swore that a certain dress coat was badly made, one of the sleeves being longer than the other. "You will," said the great Erskine slowly, having risen to cross examine, "swear—that one of the sleeves was—longer—than the other?"

Witness—I do swear it.

Erskine (quickly and with a flash of indignation)—Then, sir, I am to understand that you positively deny that one of the sleeves was shorter than the other?

Startled into a self contradiction by the suddenness and impetuosity of this thrust, the witness said, "I do deny it."

Erskine (raising his voice as the tumultuous laughter died away)—Thank you, sir. I don't want to trouble you with another question.

A Persian Mode of Punishment.

An extraordinary punishment is in vogue in Persia. It consists in taking the culprit through the following "course of sprouts" and is said to be very effectual, especially when it has been applied to one guilty of the third offense:

The first time a man is caught in the act of stealing he is "bastinadoed" (beaten on the soles of the feet with an iron rod) and made to sign a paper declaring that that will be his last offense. If he forgets this when the soles of his feet quit burning and tries it again, the second offense calls for the amputation of his right hand. If he is still obdurate and goes at it left handed, the third and of course last resort is decapitation.

Her Comment.

"The habit," quoted the young man with the red rooster decorated vest, "oft proclaims the man."

"But," suggested the young lady with the lofty brow, "it doesn't always use a megaphone to do its proclaiming, does it?"

Winning under her sarcasm, he buttoned his coat tightly across the offending garment, yet could not altogether silence it.—Baltimore American.

Truffles.

The truffle is a wonderful vegetable. It has neither roots, stems, leaves, flowers nor seeds. It grows just below the surface of the earth and in France is discovered by the aid of swine, which are attracted to it by the fleshy smell it emits. In England dogs are trained to search for it.

The Most Costly Book.

The most costly book in the world is declared to be a Hebrew Bible now in the Vatican. It is said that in 1512 Pope Julius II. refused to sell the Bible for its weight in gold, which would amount to $103,000. That is the greatest price ever offered for a book.

A woman who has had experience with this disease, tells how to prevent any dangerous consequences from it. Our oldest little girl would call lustily for cough syrup between whoops. — Jessie Pinky Hall, Springfield, Ala. This remedy is for sale by F. Duhring."

Sciatic Rheumatism Cured After Fourteen Years of Suffering.

"I have been afflicted with sciatic rheumatism for fourteen years," says John Edgar of Germantown, Cal. "I was able to be around but constantly suffered. I tried everything I could hear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did, and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured, and I am happy to say it has not since returned." Why not try this liniment and get well? It is for sale by F. Duhring.

Burning Glasses in Store Windows.

A chemical journal warns pharmacists and all others who have occasion to display anything in the nature of a lens in their windows that as the season changes the sun's rays may fall directly into windows which they did not reach during the preceding season, and therefore it would be well to bear in mind the possibility of fire being kindled through this agency and take precautions accordingly. The show globes in a druggist's window are capable of acting as "burning glasses" is proved by one case in which the woodwork of a window was effectually charred by the sunlight concentrated on it through a globular show bottle.

Altering a Great Painting.

In one of the principal colleges in Paris there was once a picture showing Napoleon Bonaparte, attended by several of his officers, paying a visit to a plague hospital in Egypt. After his death some enterprising artist of Bourbon tendencies and with no fear of committing anachronisms converted the figure of the "Little Corporal" into that of Christ and transformed the attendant generals into apostles. By a strange oversight he neglected to alter every portion of the painting, and the Saviour appeared with a pair of boots such as were worn by the great general.

Things Not as They Seem.

A youth with a crutch leaned up against the end of the car. "Poor fellow," murmured a sympathetic woman. "Why doesn't some one give him a seat?" Finally she got up and gave him her own place. The boy looked surprised, but took it, standing his crutch up before him. "He ain't lame," grinned a man. "He's just takin' that crutch to a lame man from the place where he works." The woman glared, but the boy nonchalantly held on to his crutch and the seat it had won for him.—New York Press.

ARE YOU DEAF?

ANY HEAD NOISES?

ALL CASES OF DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE

by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable.

HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:

Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.
About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.

I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.

I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain
Very truly yours,
F. A. WERMAN, 729 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation.
Examination and advice free. YOU CAN CURE YOURSELF AT HOME at a nominal cost.
